Philemon 1:3

Our Prayer Pages

Please pray:

For the repose of the soul of my cousin-in-law Richard. May he be welcomed by the loving embrace of our heavenly Father. For his family, that they find support, comfort and peace.

In Thanksgiving for our son, Joe, coming home from the hospital.

In Thanksgiving, as we celebrate our 30th wedding anniversary.

For our son, Joe, who is in the hospital. May Christ's Light guide him through the darkness.

In thanksgiving for Fred's and Phyllis' successful surgeries.

For my sister's mother-in-law, Phyllis, who will be having her toe amputated on Friday, 9/18. May she feel the Lord's loving presence and peace and be given strength and hope.

For my parents, Connie and Fred. Dad will be having bladder cancer surgery on Thursday, September 17th.

For recovery for Aidan after his successful surgery.

May God bless Angelica and Leandro as they start their married life together.

For wisdom for my father and his doctors in deciding the right treatment for his recurring bladder cancer.

For my friend, Linda. She is recovering from a serious surgery and is still in the surgical ICU in Stonybrook.

For my cousin-in-law, Richard, who is still hospitalized. He has severe lung damage from CoVid-19 and will be starting dialysis soon. He is now cognizant and is having difficulty being separated from his wife and family.

For all parents, especially those with children who have underlying conditions, that God will guide them as they make decisions for their children to return to school.

In thanksgiving for Luke getting out of the hospital and he and his family arriving safely home.

In Thanksgiving for Mark's grandfather leaving ICU.

For Sister Katherine Hanley, C.S.J. who was seriously injured in an auto accident this week.

For Robert who has been going through a very difficult time in his life.

For my friend's 17-year-old nephew Luke, who was in a major mountain bike accident while on family vacation.

For Mark's grandfather who is in ICU and his family, that they are strengthened and comforted by the loving presence of God at this challenging time.

In Thanksgiving for Phyllis' three successful surgeries and her homecoming.

In Thanksgiving for the recovery of my cousin Mary from pneumonia. For healing of an open leg wound for my dad, Fred.

For my sister's mother-in-law, Phyllis, who will be having angioplasty surgeries this week and next and is in danger of losing her leg.

For Sienna Fricke as she undergoes surgery and then recovery, may God bless her with good health.

For my cousin-in-law, Richard, whose ventilator was removed yesterday. May our Lord strengthen him and his family for the long journey ahead.

For the health and well-being of Chuck Madden and his family.

In Thanksgiving for my parents, Connie & Fred, on their 60th wedding anniversary. May they continue to grow together in faith, hope and love.

For the intentions of Lucy Maiella.

In Thanksgiving for Denise's and Chuck's engagement after experiencing their spouses' long battles and deaths from cancer. Thank you, Lord, for turning their mourning into dancing. Ps 30:11.

For Michelle who had an accident this weekend and is in the hospital.

For my cousin Mary who has pneumonia and lives alone. May she experience God's presence and healing.

For my cousin Dianne who is very seriously ill.

For my cousin-in-law, Richard and his family. A few months ago he had a heart transplant and was doing really well until he contracted COVID-19 in the hospital and had to have a tracheotomy the other day. His wife, Donna Lou, is also recovering from the virus at home, quarantined from their two daughters.

For my mom, who resides at Luxor / Mills Pond Nursing Rehab., St. James. For her safety as well as all the residents, nurses, doctors and staff.

For my co-worker Lynn's granddaughter, Maggie. That they find out why she isn't feeling well.

For Fr. Michael to keep him safe and healthy. Also, for the safety of Holy Cross Team and Parishioners.

For the intentions of Josephine, Richard & Eddie Weiss.

For my friend Lynn whose dad, Mickey Chatterton, passed away this week.

For all the Priests and Deacons in our Diocese who continue to serve their people.

For Father Michael, for his unwavering ministering to us all.

Please pray that the anxiety and severe depression that AMK and WJD Jr are suffering from be lifted from them.

For Jessica Modzel and her baby due on May 13th. Praying all will be well, and all will be well.

For the safety of Police Officer, Terence McCartney.

For Damien Pickel, who died March 30, and for the consolation of his family.

For all who work in health care, public safety, and other essential services.

For Tom Bennett who passed away April 16 from Parkinson's disease.
